

Summer School Begins June 8

Summer school at Joplin Junior College will commence on June 8, according to an announcement made by Dean Maurice Litton. The first eight-week session to be held since 1950 will close on July 31.

Registration will be held in the College cafeteria between the hours of 9 a.m. and 1 p.m. on the first day of school. No student will be permitted to register for any course after June 11. Five class periods will be held each day, the first beginning at 7:30 a.m. and the fifth period ending at 12:45 p.m. Classes will be offered in history, chemistry, English, psychology, mathematics, speech, and commercial subjects. All classes will be taught by regular staff members, with the exception of zoology, which will be taught by William Spear, biology and chemistry instructor at Senior High School.

A minimum of fifteen students will be required for each class. Dr. Litton said any class may be discontinued on the first meeting date if the registration is inadequate. The normal load is eight semester hours, and no student will be permitted to carry more than ten.

The tuition will be $8.00 per semester hour; the textbook rental, $5.00 for each course, with sixty per cent refundable upon return of books. For courses offered, see page four.

Math Instructor Wins Scholarship

Harold Manker has been selected as one of the 60 junior college science and mathematics teachers throughout the country to attend the National Science Foundation Summer Institute at Florida State University. The course will start on June 15 and will run eight weeks to August 7.

Jim Sterrett To Do Medical Work in Paris

Jim Sterrett was notified last week that he is one of the pre-medical students in the United States selected to spend three months in the foreign country of his choice during the summer of 1960.

To receive this honor, he took a test given by the American Medical Association and then was interviewed by the Regional Director of International Physicians Association. The freshman was also required to make passing grades in certain courses and to pass a physical examination before he could apply for the scholarship.

Jim has decided to spend his three months in Paris. He will work with several doctors there in private and hospital cases. The plan is designed to give the pre-medical student practical experience and financial aid for his future schooling.

Weaver Wins Emmy

Dennis Weaver, who attended J.J.C from 1941-1943, received an Emmy for his part as Chester, the droll assistant of Marshall Dillon in the "Gunsmoke" series. Weaver's wife, Geraldine Stowell, also attended the College during 1942-43.

A.A.U.W. Lends Money to Women

Mrs. Cletus Witter, scholarship loan fund chairman, has announced that the Joplin Branch of the American Association of University Women is continuing its policy of making loans to college juniors and seniors, and to teachers of this area.

The maximum loan to one girl in one fiscal year is $500.00. A girl may borrow a cumulative maximum of $1000.00. If she repays the loan within one year after leaving college, she pays no interest. If the loan is not paid at the end of that time, she begins to pay four per cent interest.

Anyone interested in a loan should contact Miss Martha McCormick, a member of the committee, who will be chairman for 1959-60. Any girl who might need financial aid later on in her schooling should contact a member of the Joplin Branch of A.A.U.W. to determine the chairman.

Dr. Otto Seymour Will Deliver Sermon For Baccalaureate

The Rev. Dr. Otto Seymour, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon at services to be conducted at 3 o'clock, Sunday afternoon, May 31, in the College Auditorium.

DISTRICT CIRCLE-K CLUBS MEET — Five district Circle-K clubs of the Mo-Ark district were guests of the Juco club at their annual convention May 1 and 2 at the Connor Hotel. Pictured are club members at the installation banquet and Governor's Ball held Saturday night. Buddy Ball was elected Lieutenant Governor of division one.

Vacations

Where will we spend our vacations this year? Will we travel thousands of miles, at great expense, to catch a fleeting glimpse of some spot of interest? Will we spend our usual two weeks traveling to one of the continental extremities, arriving home, thoroughly exhausted, on the eve of the return to work? If business problems or personal relationships do not require the long trip, we should consider the many places of interest within an area of overnight travel.

Within a radius of 75 miles, we have three important Civil War battlefields. Less than 200 miles away is the starting point of the Pony Express, and close by is the departure point on the Santa Fe Trail. Fort Sibley, on the Missouri River, is an Indian Trading Post established in 1808, only four years after the Louisiana Purchase.

When we wish to fish, we might try Bull Shoals, Lake Norfolk, or Grand Lake for crappie and bass. Giant catfish lurk in the coal pits and drainage ditches between Pittsburg and Butler. The Roaring River - Lake Taneycomo area is world-famous for trout. Most of the above sites offer natural swimming holes, and almost every city has its own private pool. If photography is the hobby, interesting possibilities exist in this district. Many towns have riding stables for the equestrian. Beautiful woodland paths for hiking are easily found.

Lamar has a state park, the birthplace of the Thirty-Third President of our United States. Diamond is the location of the only national park in Missouri, a shrine to agriculture and science, the birthplace of George Washington Carver.

Before we rush to great distances during this vacation period, let us visit the spots of special interest in our own locality. Let us consider spending a pleasant, leisurely vacation "At Home."

Former Juco Student Joins Phi Beta Kappa

Mrs. David Christman (Mary Ann Tutt) was recently initiated into the national arts and science scholastic fraternity at the University of Arkansas. She graduated from Joplin Junior College in 1957.

Three Clubs Elect Officers for 1959-60

Circle K: Douglas Cates, president; Bob Perkins, vice president; Buddy Ball, secretary; and Bill Thomson, treasurer.

Phi Theta Kappa: Buddy Ball, president; Dixie Moffett, vice president; Jan Austin, secretary; Joan Petty, treasurer; Bonnie Cogbill, historian; and Harry Sneed, reporter.

Y.W.C.A.: Dixie Moffett, president; Joan Petty, vice president; Gayle Prigg, secretary; and Ailene Plummer, treasurer.

Buddy Ball Reports On Idaho Meeting

Buddy Ball recently reported to Phi Theta Kappa fraternity about the national convention he attended in April at Coeur d'Alene, Idaho.

Ball said that Dr. G. O. Kildow, president of the Coeur d'Alene Junior College, was the most challenging speaker at the meeting. Kildow told the fraternity members that "people must be willing to work for what they receive."

Each chapter will compile a file of information concerning alumni activities to be published in a book for the 1959-60 project. Next year's meeting will be held in Sheridan, Wyoming.

THE CHART

Jim Dale Heads Alumni Group

Jim Dale was elected president of the Alumni Association for 1959-60 at a banquet held in the cafeteria Saturday night. James Foley was elected vice-president, and Mrs. Fred Sieglinger, secretary-treasurer. Dale succeeds Kenneth Elliff who will remain on the board.

Other board members include: Mrs. Phyllis Howard, James Kershaw, Clyde Morrison, Mrs. Ray Harding, Don Miller, Miss Shirley Trim, Miss Linda Spangler, Otis McKinney, Jay Sams, Mrs. Dorothy James, Miss Donna Diehl.

The election followed an address by the Reverend Alan J. Pickering. Elliff announced that homecoming plans are underway for Saturday, October 10.

Religious Leaders Speak to Classes

Religious leaders of different faiths spoke to sociology classes during their comparative study of religions. Each man presented the origination of his religion and answered questions.

Father Butts of the Episcopal Church of Baxter Springs emphasized the necessity for educated bishops, ministers, and priests. Rabbi Charles Latz pointed out that "God follows certain laws and that a miracle, in Jewish belief, is a set of laws whose principles are yet undiscovered." Father Stanton, affiliated with St. Peter's elementary school, centered his talk around "the true church."

More Than A Contract

Fortunately for both school and community, there is still a minority of public minded individuals who give more than the contract calls for. The resignation of a Joplin City Councilman from all committees last week emphasized how much one individual gave before his doctor called a halt.

Arnold Irwin had been serving as chairman of a special legislative committee of the Council, as a regular member of the public improvements and aviation committee, and as alternate on the finance committee. Not long ago he headed a special committee, investigating fire hose bids and purchases. At all times he has engaged in activities that would stagger a person with no physical limitations if he had no regular job.

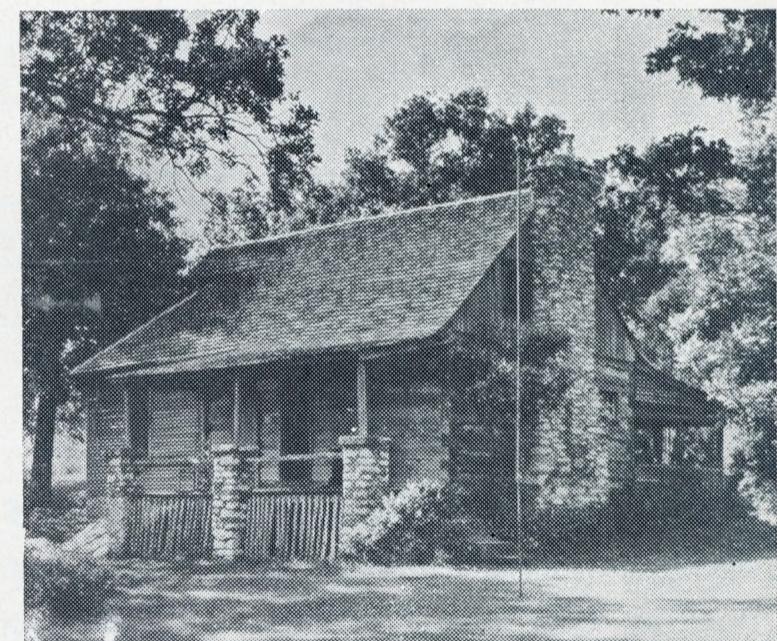

The Joplin Junior College political science instructor has not only held another job but through the years has been one of the instructors willing to give his students opportunities for extra experiences which make theories meaningful. In 1953 the College received $100 and a second-place medal in the Freedoms Foundation College Campus contest for work done by the government classes. He has arranged innumerable trips for students to view the legislative processes in Jefferson City and to participate in political conventions in other cities. He has sponsored the Washington Internship locally and has somehow managed to participate annually in professional organizations.

By his willingness to meet the problems of his locality, Arnold Irwin has given a practical demonstration of the role of a citizen in a democracy. Such people are of inestimable value to a college and a community. Would that there were more teachers and citizens willing to give extra hours! —B. L.

Literary Scenes Suggest Sites For Leisure Hours in Missouri

"Tom and Huck" watch an old sternwheeler roll down the mighty Mississippi at Hannibal. Few of the old steam-powered craft are on the river any more, but once in a while a tourist can see them still doing their chores in the land where Samuel Clemens made Tom and Huck and Becky Thatcher immortal.

Former Student Enters Gubernatorial Race

Ed Farmer, Jr., a Juco graduate, and a former Alumni Association president, has announced that he is a candidate for the governorship.

Well-known in this area, Farmer is a lifelong resident of Joplin. He attended the University of Arkansas and Washington University before entering the army in World War II. He is a state representative, and vice-president of both the Downtown Lions Club and the Joplin branch of the American Cancer Society. He is a member of the First Community Church and serves on the Joplin Little Theatre board of directors.

Players to Name Top Thespians

The College Players will hold their third annual awards banquet at 7:00 o'clock Friday night, May 29 in the Sands' restaurant. Awards will be presented to the best male and female actors in leading and supporting roles, and to the person who has made the most valuable contribution backstage.

A committee consisting of Milton Brietzke, Miss Ada Coffey, Dr. Lloyd Dryer, and Miss Cleetis Headlee will select the players to receive the awards.

Members of the College Players performed a number of interpretive readings for the Soroptimist Club and for the Progressive Mothers of the Y.W.C.A. during April.

Citizens Adopt Levy On Second Attempt

Joplin voters approved a $3.08 levy on April 28. The new levy, 19 cents lower than the one rejected on April 7, will mean no salary increase for teachers and no hiring of additional instructors.

THE CHART

The Quest for Knowledge

"This is not a speech," Bill Agan declared as he seated himself casually on the instructor's desk. "Since most of you have read Mark Van Doren's essay 'Education by Books' in English class, Miss Coffey thought you might enjoy hearing a little more about St. John's University. I certainly don't intend to speak with any authority other than that resulting from one year's study there. You see at St. John's, Annapolis, an education by great books program is in effect. All students . . ."

Miss Ada Coffey beamed with satisfaction while her Masterpieces of Literature class listened with undivided attention as the poised young man gave his impressions of one of the nation's most unusual and discussed institutions of higher learning.

Students queried the 1955 graduate of Joplin Junior College. "What courses do you take? What's required?"

"Everything's required," Bill replied. "All freshmen take the same things. There are no electives. Everything is so integrated that it's hard to separate. Let's see—math, philosophy, science, political and economic theory, music, ancient Greek. There are no English courses, as such, because we write papers for all classes. History is the same way. We get it by reading books for other subjects. We are encouraged to relate subjects to each other, to see the whole program as a unit rather than as individual parts."

"How big is the school? How big are the classes?"

"There are about 300 students," Bill decided, "and approximately one instructor to every seven or eight students. There are 15 to 20 students in a class."

Beatniks Unknown

One young man wanted to know, "Is everybody a non-conformist, a beatnik?"

The former Juco football player looked puzzled. "I don't understand your question. There are, of course, some students who go to extremes just to be different—beards, long hair, a particular type of music whether jazz or classical.

The sad thing about this seems to me to be that they are cutting themselves off from so much that is important. Some foreign students also dress and act differently. For example, there was a Buddhist monk who wore sandals and bright robes. Most of the students are interested in being themselves and if that happens to be non-conforming, it's not too important."

Of course, someone asked, "How much does it cost?"

Grinning, Bill admitted, "Too much! Up to $2000 a year. There are a lot of scholarships; I'd estimate that about half the students there have some form of assistance. And there's part-time work."

"Are you going back?"

The former Juco Student Senate President shook his head negatively. "I feel that it's time for me to start specializing. I'm a pre-med student—plan to go to the University of Kansas next year. I'm having some trouble transferring credit hours from St. John's because they simply do not place emphasis upon such things. I think I'm going to come out with 34 hours, though, when they get everything separated."

On Integrating Knowledge

"Would you perhaps say that the main thing you got from St. John's was a feeling for the integration of knowledge?"

Bill studied very seriously for a few moments. Then he said, "No, I wouldn't say that, because I'm not able to. I don't have the ability to integrate all the things I've learned or been exposed to. But I am better at it than I was. My patterns of thinking have improved—we are always encouraged to develop our potential of reasoning. I was looking for something when I went to St. John's. After a year there, I think I'm getting closer to it. I can go ahead on my own . . ."

Bill Agan was very careful to stress his inadequacy to be called representative. All he could do, he repeatedly stated, was to give his own personal opinions, valid or invalid, about the school. And yet, he had profited by his experience and students had profited by hearing of it. Although Bill would be the first to deny it, perhaps he is one of the students Mark Van Doren had in mind when he wrote: "For never would there be written a book which they could not understand simply by reading it from the first word to the last. They might not save the world. They might not change it. But they could comprehend it." What is more important?

Musser Explains Necessity of Politics

The necessity of politics was emphasized by Don Musser, Kansas District Judge, April 27, at the annual Young Democrats' banquet in the dining room of the Capri Hotel.

Judge Musser said that politics is the link between the people and the government. As the major problems of modern politics, he listed: "the lack of activity at the precinct level; an uninformed public; and a tendency to regard politics as a dirty business."

Lyle Redmon, former president of the Juco Young Democrats, introduced the speaker. Larry Meecham, president, served as emcee.

Steggemen Take Third Place In State Track Conference

Five state records fell and another was tied May 1 as Southwest Baptist rolled up 70½ points to win the fifth annual Missouri Junior College track meet at Wentworth Military Academy.

St. Joseph took second in the meet with 57½ points, followed by Joplin with 56½. Wentworth captured fourth honors with 30, Kemper Military School 22, and Trenton 3½. Wentworth had won the meet for the past four years.

Coach Dudley Stegge's Lions won five events, including Jim Cash's record-breaking javelin throw of 183 feet, 3 inches. Cash's heave eclipsed the old mark of 162-6, set by Mills of Wentworth, by 20 feet and 9 inches. It was only the fourth time in Cash's career he had tossed the javelin during a meet.

Dean Wilson and Dwight Arner each captured two events apiece. Wilson won the 120-yard high hurdles and the high jump. Arner captured honors in the broad jump and 180-yard low hurdles. He also placed second in the high jump.

Arner racked up 13½ points of Joplin's total. Cash, who totaled 12 points, scored a second in the discus and a third in the shot-put in addition to his javelin heave. Wilson gathered in 10 points.

Other Joplin athletes who scored in the meet were H. B. Davis, third in the broad jump; Ralph Cortez, fifth in the discus; Leon Glover, second in the javelin; Charles Drake, third in the 440-yard dash; Lowell Thomas, fifth in the 440-yard dash; and Phillip O'Hare, fifth in the 880-yard run.

The Lion's 880-yard relay team of Drake, Davis, Max Vowels and Robert Watts finished fourth. The Joplin mile relay unit of Drake, O'Hare, Thomas and Vowels placed second.

The state records that fell during the meet were in the pole vault, 880-yard relay, mile relay and the javelin.

Juco Rolls Past Miami and Parsons; Loses to Coffeyville

Scores skyrocketed as the Lion linksmen rolled over Northeastern A & M of Miami, 10½-1½, on the Miami municipal links recently.

Ray Wilson led the scoring with an 84. Wilson fired a 44 on the front side and a 40 on the back side for the medalist honors. Jack Vincent took the runner-up with a 44-41-85. Hoot Gibson led the Norsemen with an 86.

Juco golfers swamped Parsons, 10-2 on the Schifferdecker municipal course during the month of April. Tom Hamilton fired a 36 on the first side, and a 38 on the back side to capture medalist honors with a 74.

Jack Vincent of Joplin and Ponto Fuentez and Frank Rayes of Parsons shot 78's for runner-up honors.

Results of the matches follow with the Joplin player first:

Jack Vincent, 36-40-78, defeated Gary Cantrell, 43-43-86, 3 to 0.

Ray Wilson, 38-42-80, lost to Ponto Fuentez, 40-38-78, 2 to 1.

Hamilton, 36-38-74, defeated Frank Rayes, 37-41-78, to 0.

Bob Walker, 42-42-84, defeated Jack Harris, 47-43-90, 3 to 0.

Coffeyville Junior college linksmen defeated Joplin, 10-8, and the Lions thumped Independence, 16-2, last month in a triangular golf match on the Coffeyville municipal course.

Tom Mummert of Coffeyville garnered medalist honors with a 74. Jack Vincent of Joplin took the runner-up spot with a 77. Mickey Choinard fired an 88 to lead the Independence squad.

The Lions won three of the four best ball matches, losing to Coffeyville, 69-75.

Joplin Netters Defeat Parsons

The Lion netters defeated Parsons, 5-1, recently behind the sparkling play of Bob Lawson. Lawson defeated Sieboosh Sadri, Parsons ace, in the opening match and teamed with Glenn Meadows to down Sadri and Allen Davis in a double event.

Meadows was credited with the Lions' only loss, bowing to Davis in a singles pairing 6-8 and 1-6. The Joplin racquetters easily polished off the rest of the Parsons crew, with no match going as far as three sets.

The netters were coached by Dick Humphrey.
